Practice Profile

Kinsey has a broad civil practice with a focus on corporate/commercial and employment disputes. As one of the few barristers with native Mandarin abilities and dual qualification in PRC(GBA) and Hong Kong, she has developed a substantial practice in cross-border commercial litigation and international arbitration. She constantly provides advice to both local and mainland clients on various areas including employment related issues, cross-border transactions, investment disputes, enforcement of mainland judgments or arbitral awards in Hong Kong. She often acts as Hong Kong law expert in arbitration or court proceedings conducted in PRC.
