Practice Profile

Toni is developing a broad criminal practice. She has trial experience either as a junior or a sole advocate in High Court, District Court and Magistrates' Courts, on both prosecution and defence. In addition to general crime, Toni has been involved in cases relating to regulatory matters, including occupational safety. She has also given legal advice and handled prosecution in personal data privacy matters.

Toni's practice also encompasses civil work. Toni has been involved in both court litigation and international arbitral hearings. She has acted in cases involving contractual disputes, trusts, tort claims and building management disputes. She also has experience in cross-border matters between Mainland China and Hong Kong, such as recognition and enforcement of mainland judgments. She undertakes advisory and drafting work.

Toni read law at the Chinese University of Hong Kong and University of Cambridge. Prior to that, she studied Chinese Studies (literature, history, philosophy) and PPA (Politics and Public Administration) at the University of Hong Kong.
