Practice Profile

Kinsey joined Chambers in 2013 following her completion of study at University of Oxford. She undertakes both junior works and cases on her own. Her civil practice includes company, landlord and tenant, personal injuries, defamation, contractual and commercial disputes. As one of the few barristers with PRC background, she has developed a substantial practice in cross-border litigations and cases with PRC elements involved. She has been appointed as a Legal Consultant of Zeda Law Firm, a Hangzhou law firm since 2016.
