CEDR Accredited Mediator

HKMAAL General & Family Accredited Mediator

Practice Profile

Litigation

Brian has a broad civil practice and he has been instructed as the sole counsel in various trials both in the District Court and the High Court. Further, he has extensive experience in making as well as resisting various applications such as interlocutory injunction, summary judgment and security for costs. He also undertakes advisory and drafting work. More specifically, his civil practice includes contractual and commercial disputes, trusts, tortious matters such as personal injuries and defamation.

His criminal practice involves applications in the High Court such as bail applications and magistracy appeals as well as conducting trials in the District Court and the Magistrates' Courts.

Mediation

In 2008, Brian became a CEDR Accredited Mediator and he has been appointed as the mediator in a wide range of disputes on a regular basis. As of 2023, Brian has been appointed as the mediator in over 1,300 cases.

In February 2015, Brian was interviewed as a specialist advocate on mediation by the Lawyer Monthly Magazine. Further, Brian was interviewed by the RTHK in September 2016 on personal injury mediation.
