Practice Profile

Karen was called to the Hong Kong Bar in 2024. She joined Chambers after serving pupillage with Mr. Valentine Yim, Mr. Kamlesh Sadhwani, Mr. Kay K.W. Chan and Ms. Kinsey Kang.

Karen completed her JD (with Distinction), graduating first in her class at the City University of Hong Kong. During her legal studies, Karen received prestigious awards, including the Deacons Prizes and the Sir Oswald Cheung Memorial Fund PCLL Scholarship which fully funded her PCLL studies and recognised her as the best academically qualified candidate amongst those who intend to practice at the Bar.

Prior to commencing her legal journey, Karen obtained a Bachelor's Degree in Bioengineering.

Karen is predominantly developing a broad civil practice with particular focus on Property, Probate and Trust-related disputes, including those involving New Territories land. Karen also has experience in commercial, contractual and company winding up matters, and accepts instructions across all areas of work, as sole counsel or part of a team.
